

Ensemble Auditions

After a challenging couple of years due to the pandemic, we are delighted to announce that we will soon be getting back in the rehearsal room!

We are about to go into development for our new show Inner Circle and we are looking to invite up to two new freelance performers to join our company as a devising performer. We would love to hear from performers who are confident to express through their body, can sing or play a musical instrument or percussion. Performers will need a base in Bradford or be willing to travel.

You will receive £600 per week.

The audition will be a playful, uplifting physical theatre workshop with our co-artistic directors Jen Nevin and Mike Auger in Kala Sangam in Bradford on Monday 13th December 3pm-5pm. We know attending auditions can be expensive emotionally and financially for freelancers. It is our intention that you enjoy the session and leave having made new connections and feel inspired. We will share Displace Yourself's unique devising process and make the session as stress free as possible for you. If you need support with travel costs please mention in your application and we will help where we can.

If invited to join the ensemble for the new show, successful auditionees would be required for 3 weeks of rehearsals on the following dates and locations:

Week commencing: 7th Feb, Bradford; 28th Feb Cornwall; 14th March Stockton on Tees

We are interested in performers with at least 3 years professional experience (or 3 professional productions) in physical performance and applicants can be any age. This is an exciting role for someone that enjoys working in collaboration. The intention is that Inner Circle will go back into redevelopment later in 22/23.

Displace Yourself are committed to encouraging diversity and inclusion. Our recruitment process is open to all. Considering the themes of our work artists with lived experience of feeling displaced or marginalised in relation to race, ethnicity, disability, socio-economic background and LGBTQIA+ identity are encouraged to apply.

About us

Displace Yourself are an ensemble of theatre makers, musicians, visual artists and therapeutic practitioners with over a decade of experience of touring shows in the UK and internationally. We are passionate about addressing the personal, relational, and systemic imbalances in our society and working towards a world that celebrates cultural diversity in all its forms.

Our shows are wild, tender, and always include you. We have an emphasis on wellbeing and our ethos of care ripples throughout our team and into all the work we do.

R&D Inner Circle

A devised collaboration between director Jen Nevin and an incredible team of creatives, including the Founder of Kneehigh Theatre, Mike Shepherd.

Inner Circle is a seductive celebration of all of us misfits, our queerness and our underrated ordinariness! Telling the story of a group of outcasts, mischief makers and agitators who have banded together to challenge the social, cultural and political values of the new order. After a lifetime of fighting the system and being marginalised for who they are, they have realised they are just too fabulous to dim their lights... and they won't try for a moment longer.

Time to whip off our masks and fluff up our feather boas for a night of bizarre storytelling, belting live music with some deliriously comic characters.

A joyous experience for audiences to dance in their seats, cry in comradeship of our shared heartbreaks and remember the value of being alive!
